

Cecil County, July 20th, 1776.

I hereby certify that I have mustered Twenty men Enrolled by Mr. John Stockton, Jr., Second Lieutenant of a Company of Militia to be raised in Cecil County to make part of the Flying Camp, and that they are a parcel of able bodied effective men. Given under my hand the day and year above.

Jno. D. Thompson,
Lieut. Col. 18th Batt.

Cecil County, July 29th, 1776.

Sirs—Mr. Richard Bird has Enrolled Sixteen men, part of Capt. George's Company, Three of which did not appear at the time the others met to be mustered and passed. The other Thirteen are able bodied effective men. The whole of Mr. Bird's men will in a day or two be mustered and passed. As Capt. George is anxious to go to Annapolis to get Directions, it is thought not necessary to detain him for the few remaining. In a few days a Roll of the whole will be transmitted to you. I am Sirs Your very Humb. Servt.

Jno. D. Thompson.

To The Honourable The Council of Safety of Maryland.

Enrolled by Capt. Walter Alexander. Passed by Col. Charles Rumsey, July 24th, 1776.

William Alexander	Joseph Dawson	John McClintock
Christopher Rutledge	James Cavinder	Joseph Beath, (Bath)
Jonathan Mullins	Kenniday Bay	Stephen McConnell
William Kite	Alexander Work	Patrick Robison
Edward Martin, (Martain)	Robert Evans	John Denney
Robert Ray	James Cochran	James Smith
John Patterson	Abraham Holms	Thomas Quail
Thomas Doyl	Ezekiel Alexander	William Conway
Phineas Harvey	James Alexander	John Mills
Thomas Owens	Robert Longwill	John Davidson
Gregry Pearce

Enrolled by 1st Lieut. Andrew Porter. Reviewed and passed by Elihu Hall, of Elisha, July 27th, 1776.

John Tibbs	James Conner, (Connor)	Stephen Right
Edward Gallinough	William Creighton,	Daniel Linsey
William Mackey	(Creaghton, Creaton)	Dinish Smith
Stephen Mahoney	John Tower	James Quigley
Roger Daugherty	Patrick McFaden	William Beard
John Barry	John Duffy	Solomon Collins
John Smith	John Campbell	Michael McCasker
George Carlin, (Carlon)	Frances Farrel	